START MEMO NOMINATING-JUSTIFICATION: Since April 2004 Ms. Qi Wang has served as a Policy Analyst within the Privy Council Office's Border Task Force, a group that was created in the wake of 9-11 to provide direct support to the Canadian Deputy Prime Minister on the U.S.- Canada Smart Border Declaration and its associated Action Plan. Ms. Wang works to develop advice and policy and to coordinate horizontal border initiatives by Canadian government departments with the view of advancing the objectives of border security and facilitation.
The Borders Task Force, although small, plays a key role in the management of the U.S.-Canada relationship along the border; the Task Force's chief interlocutors in the USG are at the White House (Homeland Security Council), DHS Headquarters (Office of the Secretary) and the Embassy.
By increasing the knowledge and sophistication about the United States among members of the Task Force we will help ensure that U.S.-Canada relations on the key files of trade and security benefit from a clear vision and understanding of American policy, practice and interests.
Through the IVLP, we hope Ms. Wang will gain a more refined sense of economic, political, security and social issues facing the U.S.; the workings of the U.S. government; and the myriad factors that influence U.S. foreign and domestic policy. It is also her hope that the extended stay in the U.S. will give her the opportunity to better experience American culture and regional variations.
While Ms. Wang has had the opportunity to develop contacts in the Government of the United States as a result of her position at the Borders Task Force and her work takes her across the border about once every six weeks, she considers, and we agree, that she has had fairly limited exposure to the United States. The business trips to the U.S.: Washington DC, Detroit, Buffalo have been restricted to a couple of days for the most part and not particularly conducive to immersing oneself in American culture or receiving sophisticated analysis of broad American interests. In terms of personal travel, she has had the chance to visit New York and Boston.
We fully expect that Ms. Wang will ascend to positions of significant importance and influence in the Canadian government.
